IN THE PITS

by Mike Laible

Well not much to report here on the business end. I have seen a lot of members at Alvin and Texas City so remember to thank them and always be courteous.

I really haven't been flying much and really miss flying at our field. JSC announced no earlier than 10-5 for Phase 2 which is 50% work force. I am trying to get an answer if that means us – so stay tuned. 100% workforce is TBD no earlier than December.

I did go to Livingston summer sizzler. This fly in had about everything. Alternating wind directions (I think four times in one day), rain, cool front, hill to land on, cubs, great dinner, and yes, old friends. All in all good. I fly great but kept landing one the hill top and would roll off hill.

A couple of Cubs landing on the strip. It was a treat. Larry Hultman pulled out all the stops.

Next up is a bunch of Corsairs ready for take-off. I believe there is four more behind this picture, so eight corsairs in the air at one time.

Randy with his Double Barrel. As of this writing the plane has a new owner, I think Josh Barrel won it in a raffle.

It was nice to get out but I tell you, I am rusty on the fingers. I better get some good flights in before Bomber.

Godspeed and safe landings,

Mike

JUNE MINUTES

by Mike Laible

No meeting so no minutes.

We will have a general discussion at the meeting and hopefully some show and tells.

What's Up Around The Club

by Mike Laible

Well I am not be flying much but I am getting things moving on the Bearcat and B-25.

Below is the wing of the B-25. I forgot how big it is. Lining up the main spars and will shim accordingly. Further off than I want but nothing a little filler wont take care of.

The next pic is the bomber assembled. I really can't wait to fly this one.

The bearcat is ready for final paint. Then it is just a matter of installing everything, which has already been done should go quick. Since this pic I have all the panel lines and rivets on. Its looking good.

That's all I have this month. Remember send me some notes on what is going on.

Everyone would be interested in knowing

Mike
